

Tim Shea

DIRECTOR

Experience

Mr. Shea, a member of The MFA Companies'® Business Strategies Team, brings an integrated, customer-focused approach to identifying and aligning the needs of high-growth, entrepreneurial organizations and individuals with MFA's unique sources of value. As a trusted advisor, Tim strives to guide businesses to sustainable growth, helping them to achieve their vision of success. He works in partnership with MFA subject-matter experts and customers to provide distinctly tailored business compliance and strategic planning services, insight and guidance.

Prior to joining MFA, Tim worked at AllianceBernstein, a global investment-management and research firm, and Five Mile Capital, an alternative investment and asset management company specializing in investment opportunities in real estate, debt products, structured finance, asset-based lending and financial services private equity. During his time at AllianceBernstein and Five Mile Capital, Time focus on capital raising, real estate investment and financial consulting.

Expertise

- Relationship management
- Market research and analysis
- Strategic planning
- Business development
- Contract negotiation
- Program management

Education

- BAsC – International Policy Analysis; Cornell University